

Lit Up –in your face Rock'n Roll

From the blazing hot desert of Phoenix, Arizona, comes the molten lava sounds of “Lit Up.” Their brand of face-melting rock will leave you sweating with a thirst for more. Covering your favorite shreds from top hair metal gods such as Def Leppard, Guns N’ Roses, Van Halen, Motley Crue and Skid Row, “Lit Up” will unleash a fiery onslaught of fist-pumping arena rock from the ‘80’s to the present. It doesn’t matter if your reliving an era where music was all about the party and good times, or just want to blow off some steam, you’ll certainly be set ablaze with Arizona’s own “Lit Up.”

Band Bio–

For almost the last two years, “Lit Up,” formerly known as the “Cover Junkies,” has plagued the Southwest scene from the ground zero of Phoenix, Arizona. Known mostly for covering 80’s hair metal bands, every member of “Lit Up” has over 20 years of professional experienced, and have played from the Midwest to the Pacific. From dive bar to corporate party, from the Super Bowl pre-party to Arizona Bike Week featured entertainment, “Lit Up” has headlined as well as opened up for national acts such as “Jackyl” and “Dokken.” “Lit Up” members are as follows:

Steve Favela – Lead guitar, vocals, Rockstar

Mark Johnson – Lead vocals, Party Host,

Jim Ham – Bass, vocals, Energy Junkie

Scott Wilson – Drummer, vocals, Practicing Gigolo